Conditions of Participation

Registration for the respective seminar becomes valid through the confirmation of registration by the GVS. Complete cancellation is possible until 4 weeks before the seminar with 25,00 Euros handling charge. In cases of later cancellation, the full fee shall be retained. Visual recordings and audio recordings are prohibited. All information about patients is subject to strictest professional medical confidentiality. All violations will be prosecuted.The GVS is not liable for the content of the seminar and reserves the right to organizational changes.In case of force majeure, sickness or a small number of participants, the organizer is entitled to cancel the seminar. No claims can be made against the organizer. Already paid seminar costs will be refunded in full.
The GVS is not liable for material damage or personal injury. Audio-visual recordings are being made of the case-taking and treatment of patients and of the conducted seminar. These audio-visual recordings are being used by the George Vithoulkas Foundation (GVS) and the International Academy for Classical Homeopathy (IACH) for training and further education of homeopaths. The GVS and the IACH are entitled to store and use the recorded material in accordance with the provisions of the German Federal Data Protection Act. The recordings are being used by the IACH, the GVS or duly authorized companies to conduct video-seminars and to create and sell data media (for example DVDs). Besides, it is possible to view the recordings online with streaming-technology on a website through a protected, password-secured access. Only those homeopaths who have provided means of appropriate identification will receive a password. Data media can also only be acquired by homeopaths who have provided means of appropriate identification. Participants in live seminars will inevitably be recorded during the seminars as well. With your participation, you agree to be visible on data media.
